NUMB 415.

THE South-Carolina Gazette.

Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtick.

From Saturday February 27th, to Saturday March 6th, 1742.

PETERSBURGH, November 14.

THE Felt-Marſhal Lacy has receiv'd an Expreſs from a Lieutenant-Colonel of Huſſars, giving him an Account that he had penetrated, at the Head of 200 Men of his Corps, ſupported by 50 Dragoons, on the Nyſlod ſide, into Finland, where they had ravaged 60 Verſts of that Country, burnt 300 Villages, maſſacred all the Inhabitants who made any Reſiſtance, conſumed all the Forage, and drove away all the Cattle they found. General Keith arrived here the 11th from Wybourg, but being only come to make his Court, he propoſes to return to his Quarters in three or four Days. M. Getremoff, at the Head of a Party of his Coſſacks, has made a ſecond Irruption by Rexholm into Finland, where he has ravaged a conſiderable Tract of that Country, and after having met with ſeveral ſmall Bodies of Peaſants or Recruits, for they were dreſſed in Soldiers Cloaths, of which he cut off about 70, and returned with with 36 Priſoners, beſides 24 Women and Children, and 300 Head of black Cattle, 76 Horſes, and a great Number of Sheep: And by the Letters arrived ſince, he is ſet out again on a third Expedition.

November 17. A Report is juſt ſpread that a Detachment of Swediſh Troops had attempted to make a Deſcent near Wybourg; but the Ruſſians having had timely Notice of their Deſign, repulſed them, and after making a great Slaughter among them forc'd the reſt to fly to their Ships. We wait for a Confirmation of this News.

November 19. The Swediſh Squadron is not yet entirely gone from our Coaſt, there being ſix Men of War off Cronſtadt. There have been ſeveral Maſquerades at this Court for theſe three Week paſt, to which the Turkiſh and Perſian Ambaſſadors go by turns, for they avoid being both there together. The Perſian ſeems to be very fond of it, tho' the Eaſtern People in general have a Contempt for Diverſions of this Kind. He has at the ſame Time frequent Conferences with the Miniſters of this Court about a Treaty of Alliance, by virtue of which the Crown of Ruſſia is to guarantee the Kingdom of Perſia to Kouli Kan and his Deſcendants, on Condition that the latter guarantee the Empire of Ruſſia to the preſent Emperor and his Poſterity; and for the Execution of theſe reciprocal Guarantees each of the Contractors ſhall oblige himſelf in caſe of Need to ſend an Army of 80,000 fighting Men to the Aſſiſtance of his Ally, eſpecially if either Power be attacked by the Porte.

December 15. The laſt Letters from Finland, confirm our Army's being gone into Winter Quarters, and that all was quiet on the Frontiers, the Swedes contenting themſelves with laying up the neceſſary Proviſions for the Subſiſtence of their Troops without making any conſiderable Movements, but have entrench'd themſelves at Fredericks-haven and Abo over Head and Ears, ſo that there is no coming at them. To prevent any Expedition they may attempt over the Ice, the Ruſſians had taken the neceſſary Meaſures againſt a Surprize.

Amſterdam, Dec. 1. On Monday Night laſt we had a Storm of Wind at N. W. which endanger'd the Dykes of this Place, and thoſe of the Suyder Zee in general, they having been overflown in ſeveral Places. The Alarm Bell was rung in the Villages, and a Gate of the Town left open all Night upon this Occaſion. A Buttreſs of one of the Arches of the New Bridge was ſplit by the Preſſure of the Waters, which roſe ninety-two Inches above the common Mark. The Steeple of Egmont on the Coaſt, which was one of the principal Sea Marks, was blown into the Sea, which roſe ſeventeen Foot in that Village; the Dyke of the Suyder Zee, which covers the Territory of Harlem from Bevenwyk to Cannebroek, was overflow'd three Foot, ſo that all that rich Diſtrict was under Water: But as the Swell of the Sea is now abated, and the Sluices are open, the Land will ſoon be drain'd.

Zlabing, November 14. The Great Duke and Prince Charles have join'd the Army, which is in full March towards the Enemy. A Party of 970 Bavarians, Horſe and Foot, having attack'd Yeſterday a Poſt, where there was 100 Auſtrian Huſſars, in a little Town of Bohemia called Neuhaus, two Days March from hence, a Body of Croates fell on them, and kill'd about fourſcore. In the mean Time another Corps of Huſſars coming up, put the Bavarians entirely to Flight, and part of them having thrown themſelves into the Town and Citadel, were follow'd by the Croates, who made 420 of them Priſoners, and amongſt them 25 Officers

Vienna, November 22. The Great Duke having ſent to the Prince of Anhalt-Deſſau to know what Orders he had receiv'd from his Court, a Pruſſian Officer arriv'd in the Army on the 19th, accompanied by a Trumpeter with his Anſwer, That he had no Orders to receive for the future but from Ruſſia, and that he expected Directions from thence every Day how to act.

November 24. Advice has been receiv'd here, that the Enemies were conducting to Paſſau the heavy Artillery taken out of the Lower Auſtria. An Expreſs is arriv'd from the Army in Bohemia with Advice, that the Grand Duke was marching the 19th to attack a numerous Corps of Bavarian and French Troops that were aſſembled on the ſide of Weſſeri and Vittingen.

November 25. As the King of Sardinia ſhews more and more his Attachment to this Court, we begin to talk of a Match between that Prince and the Great Duke's Siſter. We have receiv'd Advice that the Body of Troops under Prince Lobkowitz join'd Count Neuperg's Army the 13th Inſtant, and that this Army had received Orders to march into the Upper Auſtria, and drive the Bavarians out of Ens and Lintz. An Expreſs from General Neuperg paſſed through this City this Morning to Presbourg, with Advice that General Nadaſty, at the Head of four Regiments of Huſſars had attack'd a Body of three thouſand of the Enemy, kill'd three hundred of them, took near as many Priſoners, and put the reſt to flight. The firſt Diviſion of the Troops raiſed in Hungary, conſiſting of about 20,000 Men, will begin their March in a few Days.

POSTSCRIPT

TO NUMB. 415.

To the Honourable WILLIAM BULL, jun. Esq; Speaker,
And,
To the Rest of the Honourable the Members of the Commons House of Assembly, met at Col. Miles Brewton's in Charles-Town.

March 1*st*, 1741-2.

May it please your Honours,

IT is with Shame, intermix'd with Joy, that I write you this. I find that I have presumed in my Zeal for God's Glory beyond his Will, and that he has suffered me to fall into a Delusion of Satan. Particularly in adhering to the Impressions on my Mind — Though not to my Knowledge in my Reflections and other Occurrences of my Journal. This Delusion I did not discover 'till three Days past, when after many Days intimate Converse with an invisible Spirit, whose Precepts seemed to be wise and tending to the Advancement of Religion in general, and of my own spiritual Welfare in particular, I found my Teacher to be a Liar, and the Father of Lies, which brought me into a Sense of my Error, and has much abased my Soul with bitter Reflections on the Dishonour I've done to God, as well as the Disquiet which I may have occasioned to my Country. SATAN 'till then appeared to me as an Angel of Light, in his spiritual Conversation — But since I've discovered his Wiles, he's appeared a Devil indeed, shewing his Rage — But God who is rich in Mercy hath prevented him, and strengthens me against him — My Zeal for God exerted Satan's Malice, and my Pride required Abasement: Therefore 'twas just with God to desert me — Thus St. Peter was abased for his presumptuous Confidence, and Holy David when he presumed that his Mountain stood strong soon found himself weak — My Misfortune may caution others who think they stand, to take heed, lest they fall also — My sincere Regard for my Country's Welfare, and Zeal for my God, put me on sending to you my Journal, at the Risque of suffering for it — And now my Sense of my Error and the Ill that may attend it obliges me in Duty to send you this, to prevent the Uneasiness which my Journal may create to the Government. In both I've acted with a conscientious Regard to discharge my Trust truly to God and my Country, and therefore as all Men are failable, I hope your Honours will the more easily pardon me in this Thing.

I'm surprized to hear that I'm suspected of SECRET DESIGNS contrary to the Peace and Tranquility of the Government, and that 'tis reported that I have furnished spare Arms for such Design from Charles Town. I do declare that I have procured neither Arms nor Ammunition of any sort, which if I had, it might easily be known from the Merchants, who sell in Charles Town, and from them your Honours may soon be informed of the Certainty. My whole Life has been spent among you, and my Manner of Life and Conversation, and former Zeal for my Country's Welfare is known to you, and my Inclinations with Respect to my Love and Zeal for my Country's Good are still the same as formerly. I beg Leave only to add, that God's Favour is our Country's Safety, and our sincere Obedience to his Commands is our wisest Method to obtain it, which Wisdom may God of his infinite Mercy grant to each Member of our Community, and especially to your Honours and all in Authority (the Feet do naturally travail whither soever the Head leads) is the Prayer of

Your Honours

Most humble and dutiful Servant
in JESUS CHRIST,
HUGH BRYAN.

P S. May we all keep close to the Law and to the Testimony of our God, and hearken to no other Revelation for divine Truth, and watch and pray that we enter into Temptation is a further Prayer of

Your most unworthy Servant,
H. BRYAN.

In the Commons House of Assembly, the third Day of March, 1741-2.

ORDERED, that the above LETTER be printed in the next Gazette.

Extract of a Letter from a Gentleman in York in the County of York, to the Reverend Mr. ——— in Boston, October 15*th*, 1741.

——— "I am next to inform you what has happen'd here since last Lord's Day was se'nnight, when the Rev. Mr. W——d of Biddeford, preached here concerning the Miraculous Descent of the Holy Ghost, on the Day of Pentecost. ——— He was very pathetick, and mov'd the People to expect and pray for the like Descent, in all it's Effects; the cloven Tongues only excepted: And before the Exercise was over, sundry Persons said they experienc'd the Rushing mighty Wind, &c. and were filled so full of the Spirit, that they cried out, it is enough Lord, &c this put the Audience into some Confusion, and sundry Persons were affected, but in different Ways; some with utmost Terror, fancying all the Terrors of the invisible World, were visibly set before them: So that they cou'd describe the Shape, and Colour, of the infernal Spirits; the Tortures of the Damned, &c — Others were struck dumb, and remain'd so, many Days, under the greatest Distress — others were voilently, as they said, assaulted by the Devil, who threatened to tear them in Pieces; others, as they thought, fell into Trances, and were transported to Heaven, and saw the Glories of it, and could give a particular Description of its Scituation, Inhabitants and Exercises, and had full Assurances of their Title to that blessed Place. The Generality of them had a harder Task to go thro'; remaining under Darkness three, four, six or eight Days, before they received any Light or Joy, and some continue still in the same distressed Condition. They that have not got thro', as they call it, generally complain of Reason, as their greatest Hindrance in coming to Christ: This would often contradict their Faith and Visions, and put them into utmost Distress and Perplexity; 'till they had quite cast it away, with all the Doctrines of Religion, that seem'd to be built upon it; — Then the Doctrines of Election, Reprobation, irresistible Grace, imputed Righteousness, Justification by Faith alone, &c were, as they imagin'd, gradually clear'd up to them, and freed of their seeming Absurdities. Some would discourse on them with a little Freedom, but as soon as they were pressed in any Argument, they'd start, and with some Abhorrence tell you ——— That's carnal Reasoning ——— We are afraid of it ——— We have cast away Reason some Days ago ——— And are afraid, you are an Instrument of Satan tempting us to Unbelief ——— And tho' they expressed the greatest Respect and Concern for you, dar'd not hear you talk a Word of what they call Reason ——— They had the strongest Evidences, they said, of their Election, Justification, &c. Some were present with the Lamb, and saw him write their Names in the Book of Life, and could describe the Book, Character, Hand and Pen ——— They are free and open in relating their Experiences, and strongly urge the Spectators to come and see this wonderful Work of God; they earnestly pray for the Conversion of all ——— And encou-
